

Project

The war past of our family
(The Toropovs - The Krivilevs)

Aim of this project

- To expand knowledge of my relatives' life and activities.

Problems of the project

- to find out what contribution was made by my relatives into victory over fascist Germany
- to acquaint the schoolmates with history of our family

Plan of the project

- The Great Patriotic War is the most tragical event of the 20 th century in history of Russia
- Personal contribution of my close relatives into the victory in the Great Patriotic War
- My relatives' life and labor activities after war
- We, successors of the victory, should preserve peace on the earth

In 2010 our country celebrated the 65 th anniversary of victory in the Great Patriotic War.

There is no family which wouldn't be concerned by war.

The Soviet Union had great losses of people (more than 20 million) in the Great Patriotic War.

The war affected our family. Two my grandfathers took part in war battles.

- My grandfather Toropov Nickolai Fedorovich had served in the Red Army before the war in the Far East in 1938. There he completed courses of military commanders. His speciality was a gunner.

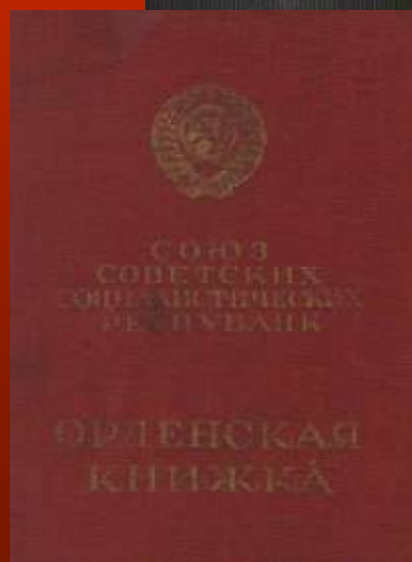

- Toropov N.F.)

- In 1941 the Great Patriotic War began. My grandfather as most of Russian people took part in the war battles in the Far East. As a commander of an artillery battery, Nickolai Fedorovich participated in many military operations on releasing of cities Budapest, Prague, Warsaw, Vienna.

- In 1944 in the one of the war battles he was badly wounded and confused. In the hospital of Kazan he found out about victory.

- Nickolai Fedorovich was awarded by many medals and orders: medals "For Valour", "For the capture of Budapest", the medal "Victory", the order of the Great Patriotic War first degree, "For Military Merits", medal "For victory over fascist Germany".

- My other grandfather, Krivilev Nickolai Dmitrievich fought in a rank of lieutenant in the battalion of the Second Ukrainian front. He took part in many war operations including capture of Berlin.

- Nickolai Dmitrievich was awarded by medal " For courage", " Victory", " For capture of Berlin".

- My grandmother Toropova Polina Stepanovna made a contribution into victory over fascist Germany too.
- In 1943 she as a student of the Kazan Medical Institute treated the wounded soldiers, did supplies of firewood, sent parcels with food, warm clothes to the front.
- My grandmother has some awards too: medal "For Valiant Labour in the Great Patriotic War", " In honour of 30 th and 50 th anniversary of Victory".

- My grandparents got acquainted in 1948 when Nickolai Fedorovich served in the Committee of State Safeguard in Zelenodolsk. In 1950 they got married.

- The Toropovs brought up 3 children: 2 sons and a daughter.

- Nickolai Fedorovich had been working a long time at Mary Paper Plant and then at school number 6 as a teacher of Technology. In 1980 he died.
- My grandmother worked as a nurse at school. Now she is on pension.
- After war Krivilev Nickolai Dmitrievich worked at school number 2 as a Maths teacher . He died in 1999.

- I am proud of my close relatives. We, successors of the victory, should not forget what our ancestors had done for our future peaceful life. We should preserve the peace in the world.

- The project was made by the pupils of class 10 school №9 Krivileva Olga, Yusupkina Diana.
- The head of the project: English teacher Ortina I.G.
